

Memories of GG

Across

- 2 He didn't appear in Gone With The Wind but rumor has it, he was GG's favorite actor.
- 4 The woman she revered above all others in her family.
- 5 GG said she preferred this color over all others.
- 12 GG's all time favorite movie.
- 13 GG was often heard doing this as she worked around the house.
- 14 GG named her after her beloved mother and expressed her pride, respect and love for her most often when she was out of earshot.
- 15 He was certainly a late in life surprise.
- 16 Everyone encouraged GG to learn how to do this.
- 18 Of the two birthstones for the month of August, GG preferred this one, which is often confused with Carnelian.
- 19 One of GG's favorite places at the ocean for a picnic.

Down

- 1 GG was born in this little suburb outside of Pittsburgh, PA.
- 3 She became an assistant buyer at this department store.
- 6 One of GG's favorite songs and favorite sayings.
- 7 GG loved working with her hands. She created several beautiful pieces through this form of counted thread embroidery.
- 8 The most exotic place in which GG lived.
- 9 A favorite treat GG would make for the holidays.
- 10 She loved all flowers, but she had a special place in her heart for this one.
- 11 GG was so excited when she caught her 1st one!
- 15 GG could be described as very accepting of her past.
- 17 GG often said she would have preferred her middle name over Veronica i.e., the Polish spelling of the name of a 12th-century Sicilian saint.
